ATHENS, 1st October, 1821. Senators elect, for the ensuing Legislature, of the State of Georgia.

It is important that the Senatus Academicus, presiding over the interest of the State, should have minute and correct information of the state of education in every section thereof, and the clause charter of the university, requiring that a report should be laid before the Board, at its annual session, having by long disuse become almost obsolete. Resolved, that it is hereby earnestly recommended to the Senatus Academicus, to make at all future sessions of the Senatus Academicus, a report of the state of Academics and Schools in their several sections.

ASBURY HULL, Sec'y of the Senatus Academicus. Distributors of News-papers throughout the State, to advance the cause by giving the above information.
