MILLEDGEVILLE STREET LOBBERY.

(Authorized by the General Assembly of the State of Georgia.)

Dame Fortune stands in merry mood,
Pouring her favors to the crowd—
Be ready, friend, before they fall—
Who knows but you may catch them all!

MONEY MONEY!

LOTS OF MONEY!

WHEN we consider that Fortune is daily diffusing wealth and happiness in all parts and every corner of this extensive country, through the medium of the Lottery System; that scarcely a week or a day wheels by us without bringing the intelligence, that some one of our friends or fellow-citizens has drawn a prize; and that it only requires an investment of the trivial sum of ten dollars to give us a good chance for a Prize of $20,000. Surely it is unnecessary to urge up on this liberal and enlightened people, the policy of stepping in the way to wealth and the favor of the propitious Dame.

THE FOURTH DAY'S DRAWING

WILL TAKE PLACE
On Saturday, the 21st of June next, at the court-house in the town of Milledgeville, at which time there will be floating in the wheel the following

SPRINDLED PRIZES:

1 Prize of $10,000	3 Prizes of $600
1 " " $5,000	5 " " 500
1 " " 1,000	4 " " 400
3 " " 500	3 " " 300

The Mormonites again.—Gov. Dunklin of Missouri, has issued an executive letter, directed to several leading men of the Mormon persuasion, directing them to appeal to the Courts of Law, which are bound to render them satisfaction for the late outrageous assaults upon their rights and liberties as peaceable citizens. The Governor says,—“In the event that the laws cannot be executed, and that it is officially made known to me, my duty will require me to take such steps as will enforce a faithful execution of them.”—*Denville Enqui-

ANOTHER REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER DEPARTED.
DIED, on the 10th day of April, 1834, at his residence in the county of Monroe, ABRAHAM WOMACK, in the ninety-first year of his age. In the war of the revolution he was a brave, active, and useful soldier. This worthy man through a long life possessed in a high degree the respect and confidence of society, and was for many years before his death, an exemplary member of the Baptist Church.

TO THE PUBLIC.
