She was born September 03, 1844 in Nashville, Howard County, Arkansas.

Notes for ASA EDMUND DOGGETT:

Asa Doggett, the eldest son of John W. and Mary Ann Lyon Doggett, moved with his parents to Alabama from Harris County, Georgia in 1843. After his parents died he spent one year in Louisiana. He went back to Alabama in 1859 and to Arkansas in 1860. He served in the Confederate Army, was in prison in Fort Delaware in 1865, released and sent back to Arkansas in 1865. He was a farmer, engaged in the lumber business, and in the register of voters of Sevier County, Arkansas in 1868, gave his profession as "teacher".

Children of ASA DOGGETT and SARA CLEMENT are:

30. i. RICHARD JAMES<sup>12</sup> DOGGETT, b. November 10, 1867, Paraclifta, Sevier County, Arkansas.
31. ii. ASA EDMUND DOGGETT, b. July 31, 1871, Paraclifta, Sevier County, Arkansas.

Notes for LEVI LOUIS KIRK:

Levi Louis Kirk was a registered voter of Sevier Co. AR in September 1868. In a firm, beautiful hand he entered his signature in the register. He gave his occupation as farmer. Levi Kirk, according to Emma Kirk Thomas, his granddaughter, was the first mayor of DeQueen, AR, but resigned before his term expired because "he had too many friends to be in politics."

After the death of his first wife, Mary Elizabeth Doggett, he remarried on April 30, 1898 in DeQueen AR to Martha J. Salter.

Stephen Kirk spelled it "Lewis" in the information he sent to me, but otherwise, I've always seen it as "Louis".
