3. THOMAS³ KIRKE (EDWARD² KYRKE, ARNOLD¹) was born 1571 in Norton Derby, England. He married ELIZABETH HAUGHTON.

Notes for THOMAS KIRKE:

Thomas Kirke's wife was Elizabeth. In some of the records, Elizabeth Kirke was referred to as the former Elizabeth Houghton of London. The Houghton's were a prominent English family.

There was another Thomas Kirke that might be the grandson of Sir John Kirke of the Hudson Bay Co. Sir John Kirke b. 1606, d. 1686, wife was Ann. Sons: John, Thomas, James, one Daughter, Elizabeth. Elizabeth married Radisson of the Hudson Bay Co.

John's father was Gervase, b. 1568 at Greenhill, Norton Derby, England. Gervase was sometimes referred to as Jarvis.

The Thomas Kyrke, b. 1571, from the line of Christopher Kirke, was a first cousin of Gervase.

The Kirke's of England were of the Norman race. The Normans were Vikings.

Christopher Kirke on the GEORGE - 1635

In 1635 Christopher Kirke, age 23 left Gravesend England, for Va. as a passenger on the GEORGE. There were 152 people on the passenger list. The GEORGE was a ship owned by Thomas Kirke, son of Gervase Kirke.

The Morman genealogy library has record of Christopher Kirke marriage to Alice unknown in 1639 in Va. In 1640 a son Christopher was born at North Hampton Va, also in 1670 in Lancaster Va another son Christopher was born.

A KIRK--- BERKELEY CONNECTION (REFERENCE BERKELEYS OF VA)

In 1627 a Company of merchant adventures was formed in London by Gervase Kirke, Sir William Axlander, W. Berkeley, and others.

In 1628 when war started between England and France the five sons of Gervase Kirke sailed from Gravesend England. The Kirke's were sailing as Privateers in the employment of this company of adventures, they had a letter of marche from King Charles, authorizing them to board any French or Spanish ship. King Charles instructed them to harass the French in Canada. The Kirke brothers went beyond harassment, they captured the whole country of Canada from the French.

The Kirke's left England with three ships, David being the oldest was in command of this fleet..

The Abigail---300 tons---Cat David Kirke

The William---200 tons---Capt Lewis Kirke

The George---200 tons---Capt Thomas Kirke

Jervases other two sons, John and James must have been on this voyage also, because in 1631 King Charles awarded all five brothers an addition to their coat of arms for vanquishing the French fleet under the command of the French admiral M.. De Roquemont in 1628. The Kirke's captured 18 French supply ships and brought Admiral M De Roquemont back to England as a prisoner.

In 1629 the Kirke's left England again, and David had nine ships under his command. One of these ships was the 200 ton Gervase.

In 1629 the Kirke brothers Captured Champlain, the French governor of Quebec, and took him back to England as a prisoner.

So on the 30th day of July 1629 the English flag was raised over Quebec, and procession was taken of Quebec in the name of the King of England. David Kirke installed his brother Lewis Kirke as Governor of Quebec, a position Lewis held for three years. After three years King Charles gave Quebec back to the French.

The Kirke's had a monopoly on the fur trade at this time, and treaty or no treaty, the Kirke's held onto this monopoly for five, maybe six years.

(Note: The fort captured by David Kirke is the same fort that exist today in Quebec City, Quebec. This fort sits on a 350 ft cliff over-looking the St Lawarance River. This is a popular tourist site.)

Gervase Kirke had two daughters, both Ladies In Waiting for King Charles. In the late 1630's a portrait of Lady Ann Kirke was painted by Van Dyck. This portrait now hangs in the Hermitage at St. Petersburg, Russia. (St. Petersburg Russia Hermitage)

Gervase Kirke died in 1629, but he lived long enough to see the great success that he and his sons had against the French. David Kirke proved many times that the French were no match for David Kirke and his brothers upon the high seas. This generation of Kirk's still had a lot of the Viking blood running through their veins.

Below is a copy of the funeral certificate of Gervase Kirke.

Funeral certificate of Mr Gervase Kirke. Mr Jervays Kyrke, gentleman and merchant of London, the sonne of Thurstan Kyrke of Greenhill, in the County of Derby, departed this mortal life at his house in Basing Lane, London, the 17th daye of December 1629 and was interred in the Parish Church of Alhallows in Bread Street the 22nd daye of the month following. He married Elizabeth, daughter of John Gowding of Deepe in France, where he had lived the most part of forty years, by whom he had yssue five sons and two daughters, David Kirke, eldest sonne, of the age of about thirty two years, captain and chief commander in the late fleete of nine sayle for the taking of Canada, in the mayne land of America; In which expedition he soe worthely demeaned himself, that he took the country, surprised the French that had there planted and fortified themselves, won their forte, and took their chief commander prisoner, and brought him captive to England; Lewis Kirke, second sonne of the age of about thirty yeares and governor of the said fort for His Majestie in Canada; Thomas Kirke, third sonne of the age of twenty six years, nowe captayne and vice admiral of the aforesaid fleet; John Kirke fourth sonne of the age of twenty three years; James youngest sonne of the age of twenty one yeares; Elizabeth eldest daughter married to Jacques Gretuelo a Frenchman in Deepe, by whom she hath one sonne David Gretuelo of the age of one year, and one daughter Elizabeth of the age of two years. Mary, youngest daughter of the said defunct of the age of ten years. He made Mrs Elizabeth Kirke his sayd wife sole executrix of his last will and testement.

Sir David Kirke became governor of Newfoundland in 1638. When David died in 1654, his wife Lady Sara Kirke took over the family fishing business in Newfoundland. Memorial university in St Johns Newfoundland has information that Lady Sara Kirke was the first successful woman entrepreneur in British North America.

David Kirke's Coat Of Arms are now the official coat of arms for the government of Newfoundland. The motto reads, (Seek Ye First The Kingdom Of God).

In 1642 the English Civil War began in England, by 1643 the fighting was getting to be heavy, so in 1643 King Charles sent David Kirke's sister to Newfoundland so as to keep her and her family out of harms way. Below is a letter sent to David, from King Charles at the time that David's sister went to Newfoundland.

Sir David Kirk, -Your sister, my Lady Hopkins, with her family having occasion to visit you in Newfoundland I Thought good to desire you, whether by your advice in the business of that country or otherwise in any kind as her occasion shall require, to afford her your best assistance. And although I make no question that this would have been done in regard of the near alliance which is between you, yet I must tell you withal that I wish so well both to her and her husband that I could not omit to do my part also, wheresoever I suppose I may stand them in any stead, and so therefore assure you that what kindness you shall show to any of them I shall take it as an especial service done to myself, and be ready to requite it. And so I bid you hartily farewell, and rest.

Your friend

“Charles R.

Newport, Nov. 11, 1643.”

Lady Hopkins, who was a daughter of Gervase Kirke, remained in Newfoundland until 1660, when she returned to England and made a statement to King Charles II relating to the affairs of that island.

Note: David Kirke's flag ship the Abigal left London in April 1635 and dropped off a load of passengers in Va. I believe this passenger list can be found in London, I'm hoping that Martin Kirke will be on this list. Courtesy Max Kirk

Early Virginia Immigrants, 1623-1666

George Cabell Greer, Clerk, Virginia State Land Office

Richmond, VA: W.C. Hill Publishing Company, 1912

Preface

Since the publication of Hotten's Immigrants, no successful effort has been made to gather together, in one volume, a list of the thousands of persons who came into Virginia during the early period of her life. The records of the Land Office in Richmond remain the only source from which these names can now be obtained. As the records stand, it is simply impossible, without the most extensive and expensive research, to obtain names of persons who came to Virginia, unless they themselves were patentees of land; and the great majority of immigrants to the colony do not appear as patentees.

A list of the immigrants to Virginia has always been a desideratum to the genealogist. To descendants of early Virginia immigrants this work will, in many cases, offer the only opportunity to trace their ancestry. It will often be the means of forming the "Missing Link," which is the genealogists' bane. Nearly twenty-five thousand names have been collected from the original records and arranged in alphabetical order. The search has been systematic and thorough, and every name from 1623 (when the records begin) down to 1666 has been noted, with date of appearance.

It is believed that this work will be of interest to the general public and invaluable to the historian and antiquarian.

Generation No. 6

6. JOHN⁶ KIRK (CHRISTOPHER⁵ KIRKE II, CHRISTOPHER⁴, THOMAS³, EDWARD² KYRKE, ARNOLD¹) died Abt. 1730 in Overwharton Parish, Stafford County. He married FRANCES.

Notes for JOHN KIRK:

Mountain Run starts near the town of Culpeper and flows easterly to empty into the Rappahannock just upstream of Rocky and Summerduck Runs across the river. Thorney Branch of Mountain Run is just a mile or so from the Rappahannock. It is here that a John and Frances Kirk lived in the 1720's. This John Kirk made his will 11 Feb 1727/28 (Stafford Co. Will Bk. M). Apparently he was not elderly as his widow remarried and lived another 40 years. Culpeper County Deeds, 1749-1769, abstracted by John F. Dorman, show the the following:

1757 June 15. Frances Clift of Culpeper County, widow, to George Roberts of same, planter. For L100 current money. 400 acres which was granted to Joseph Cooper by patent 24 Jun 1726 and by deeds of lease and release 2-3 Oct 1727 recorded in the County Court of Spottsylvania was husband of said Frances Clift, and 11 Feb 1728/29 John Kirk did make his last will and testament whereby he among other things bequeathed to his wife Frances all his lands, and his will was recorded in the County Court of Stafford 8 Jul 1730. Frances after the death of her husband intermarried with William Clift who is since dead..... Witnesses: Wm. Green, Thos. Slaughter, John Field.

1757 Apr 22. Bond of Joseph Kirk of Orange Co. NC, to George Roberts of Culpeper County. George Roberts hath agreed to purchase of Mrs. Frances Clift 400 acres whereon Frances Clift now liveth which was bequeathed to Frances Clift by John Kirk her former husband...Joseph Kirk being eldest son and heir at law as will of John Kirk, deceased, as of Frances Clift, and being satisfied that it was the design of his deceased father that his mother should enjoy the 400 acres forever...Josph Kirk nor his heirs shall not demand the 400 acres. Witnesses: Adam menzies, James Slaughter, William Kirtley.

1768 Sept 5/6. George Roberts and Elizabeth his wife of Culpeper County to Joseph Burt of Cumberland Co. PA, and William Green of Culpeper Co....184 acres in St. Mark's parish...on the bank of Mountain Run by the mouth of a gully...in an island of Thorney Branch standing among rocks...part of a tract containing 400 acres which was granted by patent to Thomas Cooper 24 Jun 1726 and by Cooper sold to John Kirk who died thereof seized and by his last will and testament bequeathed the same to Frances his wife...Witnesses: Benja. Roberts, Wm. Delany, Joseph Roberts.

Joseph Kirk, "eldest son", is the only child of John and Frances mentioned above. Rules of primogeniture applied in Virginia, so if an inheritance were contested, only the eldest son would be involved. Hence it is quite conceivable that there were also sons John and Thomas. It appears that there was a son James, as seen in abstracts of the Orange County Order Book, 1734-1739: 1734 Feb 18: James Kerke appointed Surveyor of the highways from the Mountain Run Bridge to Germanna in the room of Henry Fields....1735 Feb 17: James Kirk appointed Constable in room of Peter Russell. William Kelley appointed Surveyor of Highways in room of James Kirk.

There was only one Joseph Kirk in Chatham and Orange Co. except for a grandson of Joseph's. So John Kirk would be Joseph's father.

Also, There was a Thomas Kirk from Chowan Co., North Carolina, that might fit in with John Kirk of Virginia. There is a record of Thomas Kirk landing in Chowan Co., NC in 1693. Thomas and his wife must have returned to England because again in 1694 another record of Thomas Kirk, his wife and two daughters (Ann and Rebecca) also two Negroes, (man and woman). Thomas was applying for 6 land warrants (600a), Thomas stated that he had paid passage for him and his wife twice.

I believe that this Thomas Kirk might be the grandson of Sir John Kirke of the Hudson Bay Co.

Sir John Kirke b. 1606, d. 1686, wife was Ann.: sons: John, Thomas, James, one Daughter, Elizabeth. Elizabeth married Radisson of the Hudson Bay Co.

John's father was Gervase, b. 1568 at Greenhill, Norton Derby, England. Gervase was sometimes referred to as Jarvis.

The Thomas Kyrke, b. 1571, from the line of Christopher Kirke, was a first cousin of Gervase.

Notes for JOSEPH KIRK:

Profile of Joseph Kirk

It appears that Joseph Kirk came from Culpeper Co., VA and settled in Orange Co. NC. Joseph Kirk settled in Orange Co. in what is now Chatham Co. near the town of Haywood. Joseph's land was in the fork of the Haw and Deep Rivers. The survey on this was in 1760 and deeded in 1761. Joseph must of arrived there in the latter part of the 1750's, because the survey description reads "in the fork of the Haw and Deep Rivers, which includes the plantation where Kirk now lives." In the early 1760's there was a lot of road building activity going on in this area. There were a lot of court records that were appointing the residents in this area different building tasks. Some were appointed to lay-out roads, others were to oversee the building, but all were required to work on the roads. In the land records of Orange Co. NC, Joseph had 1025 acres in 1760 in present day Chatham Co. near present day Hawood "in the fork of the Haw and the Deep Rivers". In 1771 Chatham Co. was formed. Joseph probably drew up this petition because his name was the first name to sign.

There is Circumstantial evidence that Joseph Kirk of Orange Co, NC must have immigrated in the late 1750's or 1760, because Joseph filed land warrants at Orange Co. Land Office 18 March 1760 for 700 acres deeded on 2 Oct 1761. Land Warrants were issued to persons who paid passage to NC for themselves and other people. Passage for an adult was 1 warrant worth 100 acres, for a child or servant was worth 1/2 warrant or 50 acres. Since Joseph had 7 warrants, this is an indication that he had lots of money or had access to some because the cost of a passage in those days was very expensive. Also, Joseph Kirk received a land grant of 375 acres from the Earl of Granville. The survey on this 375 acres was on May 8, 1760. The survey description would indicate that this land joined his 700 acres of land warrant property. One of the chain carriers (cc) on the survey was a George Kirk, probably his son.

Children of JOSEPH KIRK and FRANCES are:

11. i. STEPHEN⁸ KIRK, b. Abt. 1740, Virginia; d. 09 Dec 1822, Chester County, SC, at about 82 years old.
12. ii. LEWIS KIRK, b. Abt. 1744.

14. iv. GEORGE KIRK, d. 1817, Chatham County, NC.
- v. ISAAC KIRK, d. Feb 1800, Halifax, North Carolina; m. PATIENCE.

Notes for ISAAC KIRK:

Before Lewis left Halifax, his brother Isaac came to Halifax Co., in 1770 and bought land. Isaac lived in Halifax Co. until his death in Feb 1800. Isaac became a wealthy cotton planter. Tax records show Isaac owned stud horses in the latter 1780's.

Isaac married Patience, the widow of Winfield Wright. I believe this was his second wife. Isaac died intestate but here are some records of his estate settlement.

10. CHRISTOPHER⁷ KIRK IV (CHRISTOPHER⁶, CHRISTOPHER⁵ KIRKE II, CHRISTOPHER⁴, THOMAS³, EDWARD² KYRKE, ARNOLD¹) was born 1670 in Lancaster, VA, and died Nov 1733 in Lancaster, VA. He married ELIZABETH.

11. STEPHEN⁸ KIRK (JOSEPH⁷, JOHN⁶, CHRISTOPHER⁵ KIRKE II, CHRISTOPHER⁴, THOMAS³, EDWARD² KYRKE, ARNOLD¹) was born Abt. 1740 in Virginia, and died 09 Dec 1822 in Chester County, SC, at about 82 years old. He married (1) ANNA Bef. 1759. He married (2) SUSANNA CULP Abt. 1761.

Notes for STEPHEN KIRK:

Stephen Kirk had less of a paper trail than his brother did, but there were enough records to affirm that he was around Orange Co. in the same time period. Stephen gave two of his sons, Jesse and Thomas, deeds of gift in Oct 1783. Also Stephen had court records of serving on jury duty and road building duty in the area where Lewis lived. There wasn't a lot of land transactions like his brothers had. This leads me to believe that he wasn't a farmer, but a merchant or minister.

This Virginia connection is important because it would validate some earlier Kirk research. In the book "Heard County, A History of its People", Jesse Kirk is said to have been from Orange County, North Carolina and Stafford County, Virginia. He is also linked to Christopher Kirk, an English sailor who raided the French and Spanish fleets. Christopher Kirk later settled in Virginia

Notice on the deed of gift it stated that Thomas was of Orange County, but it didn't state where Jesse was from. He might have already moved on by this time.)

1789 Orange Co. NC

In 1789 Orange Co. NC, Stephen Kirk was one of several sued by Samuel Strudwick. This was a land ejection case which Strudwick won. Strudwick, a land surveyor, came into several 1000 acres of land. He started re-surveying this land, and the result was that many people had to give up some land which they thought they owned. Stephen must have been one of his victims.

1790 York District, SC

By 1790 Stephen had already moved to York Dist., SC. This would of been right after he lost his land to Strudwick.

Notes on Susannah Culp Kirk

Demeris White

I believe Susannah was a step-mother to Thomas & Jesse. The 1830 & 1840 census would indicate that she was born between 1770 & 1780 making her younger than Thomas & Jesse. Thomas died between 1790/91. Jesse nor his heirs or Thomas' were mentioned in the will of Susannah Kirk nor of their brother, John Kirk. This would lead you to believe that they were step children of Susannah.

1829 Jan 25, Chester Dist. SC - Susannah Kirk, Sr., Nancy Kirk, George Kirk, Martha Kirk, Benjamin Franklin Kirk and John Stevens, all legatees of John Kirk, late of Chester Dist., S. 12. LEWIS⁸ KIRK (*JOSEPH*⁷, *JOHN*⁶, *CHRISTOPHER*⁵ KIRKE II, *CHRISTOPHER*⁴, *THOMAS*³, *EDWARD*² KYRKE, *ARNOLD*¹) was born Abt. 1744. He married SARAH.

Notes for LEWIS KIRK:

Lewis Kirk had a son named Parham. John 's first two sons were named Parham and Lewis. Parham was most likely born in Chatham Co. Lewis might have been born in Chatham Co. also.

Lewis Kirk left for Halifax Co. in 1764 when he was 20 years old. There were no other Kirks in Halifax Co. at this time. Lewis bought 220 acres of land in Halifax Co. in Jan 1764. Lewis sold this land Jan 1768. On this sale of land Sarah relinquished her right of dowry. This was the only land Lewis ever owned in Halifax Co. Lewis and Sarah returned to Orange Co. about 1771. Lewis remained in Orange Co. the rest of his life. Lewis and his sons owned several hundred acres of land in Orange Co. mostly in the extreme SW corner of the present day Orange county.

Why did Lewis Kirk at the age of 20 leave his family in Orange Co. and go to Halifax?

I think I know the reason. I believe Lewis was already acquainted with a young lady by the name of Sarah Parham. The Parham's were well established in Halifax Co. at this time. One of the Parham families was William and Rebecca. Lewis and Sarah had children named William, Rebecca and Parham.

Lewis Kirk lived on Cain Creek and Little Cain Creek. According to the Morman genealogy records there are only six Parham Kirk's ever recorded. One of these was in Orange County, three in Montgomery/Stanly county, one in KY, and one in Ohio. Possible grandchildren of Lewis is Elisha and Goodwin.

Lewis Kirk was involved in the Revolution. I have a hand written paper which is hard to read , but in essence this is what it stated. "Lewis Kirk and Col Clark were very influential in the Revolution and active against Fanning. The experience of this was the cause for Col Clark to become a Quaker and for Lewis Kirk "to embrace the cape". "I believe to embrace the cape means that he became a minister.

In 1775 Lewis took-in two orphans to teach them the hatter's trade. There were a lot of war orphans in that time period.

Notes for JOHN KIRK:

John lived in Chatham Co. until 1786 at which time he sold all of his land which consisted of 1373 acres. This land sold for 560 lbs. John next had a record of being in the 1790 census of Montgomery Co. of N.C. The early records of Montgomery Co. were destroyed in the court house fire in mid 1800's, which makes it harder to trace these early records in Montgomery Co.

John Kirk joined the militia to serve with Capt Boens in Hillsboro Dist. This was a militia unit , but not in the Continental line. An enlistment was for three months, or as long as needed.

#19 John Kirk 100010-20100-5 (4?)

Caleb Kirk in the Wilkes County records, (c1791) was of York County, Pa., but the members of the family in Jackson County probably were from Virginia. James Kirk was in Aaron Wood's company in the 1799 tax list of Jackson and in 1803 the Kirks were living on Walnut Fork of Oconee River. John Kirk sold April 12, 1802, four slaves for $800, and on Jan. 21, 1805 he purchased 502 acres on nearby Mulberry Fork. That year, John Sr. and Jr., two Henrys and Jesse Kirk were in the lottery list. Only John was enumerated in Jackson in 1820; another John was in Walton County, and in Jasper County were Jesse and Wiley (Wiley, a soldier, was listed in the 1827 Jasper lottery as were Elijah and Hudson Kirk); and in Gwinnett County 1820 were (No. 468) Catherine and (No. 479) George Kirk. In 1827, Joseph, a soldier, was in Henry County, and Louisa's minors and Levi were in Jones County.

Randolph Co. was formed from Baldwin Co. in 1807 and later became Jasper Co. in 1812. As told by employees of the GA State Archives, the Jasper Co. GA Census of 1820 failed to cover a certain area of that county, and a number of families are missing. Printed versions of the 1820 census index, including the copy at the TN State Archives, lists a Jasper Co. Twp. (Monticello) incorrectly as Irwin Co. GA.

Jesse Kirk moved to Jackson Co. GA 1800 and lived there until 1809

He and his wife had one child when they moved to Jackson Co.
Wiley Kirk was born in 1793 in York Co. SC.

Jesse Md. _ Daniel there (?).

The following children were born in Jackson County GA
Hudson Kirk, Lawrence Kirk, Elijah Kirk, Mary Daniel Kirk

In 1784, when Northeast Georgia was pretty much wilderness, with very few white man settlements, and inhabited by both the Creeks and Cherokee Indians, Franklin County was formed. Franklin Counties boundaries were quite extensive. Twelve years later, the population had greatly increased, so that the southwestern inhabitants of Franklin County made application for a new county.

So it was, in 1796 Jackson County the twenty-second county formed in the state was cut from Franklin. February 11, 1796 the Legislature passed the act establishing the boundaries of Jackson County.

This large territory was named after Gen. James Jackson, who fought in the Revolutionary War. For nearly five years the original lines of Jackson County remained intact. But the ever increasing population once again demanded a new county be formed. And so by an Act approved on December 5, 1801, Clarke County was cut from Jackson.

Ten years passed before Jackson County was again asked to give up some of her boundaries by citizens living east of Big Sandy Creek. By taking a large part from Jackson and smaller portions from Oglethorpe, Clarke, Franklin, and Elbert Counties, Madison County was formed, by an Act approved December 5, 1811.

On December 19, 1818 a large portion of Jackson County was cut to form three counties, Walton, Gwinnett, and Hall Counties.

Over the years since 1818 there have been small changes in the boundaries of Jackson County, but nothing major has taken place since then.

Clarke County, Georgia was created 5 December 1801 from a portion of Jackson County. Originally Cherokee lands, the area became Franklin County in 1784, with Jackson County being created 12 years later in 1796. In 1811 a portion of the northeastern part of the county was taken and it, along with portions of Elbert, Franklin, Jackson and Oglethorpe Counties became Madison County. In 1875, the county seat was moved from Watkinsville to Athens. The local citizens were indignant at the change and brought about the formation of Oconee County with Watkinsville as County Seat, from 186 square miles of the southeastern part of Clarke County.

Clarke County was named for Elijah Clarke (1733-1799) of North Carolina, a distinguished soldier of the Revolution War. Clarke later served in the US House of Representatives from Wilkes County.

Jesse Kirk lived in Jasper Co. GA from 1909-1923

The following children of Jesse and _ Daniel were born in Jasper County GA
Thomas Kirk b.1814
John Jackson Kirk, Gedion Kirk, James P. Kirk

The 1820 Federal Census for Jasper County, GA. There were 9175 white people enumerated.
Enumerator Joel Baley

Enumerator's Comments: [On the final page of the County census]-The County of Jasper is about forty miles in length and twenty in breadth. In taking the census thereof I was engaged in riding about ninety days and upon an average travelled about 20 miles per day. The difficulties I had to encounter were many. Frequent obstructions presented themselves in leaving the main travelling roads, as bye ways and such paths as I was compelled to travel were in very many places obstructed by plantation housing[?] over almost impassable grounds ___ which rendered travelling in those parts very fatiguing, tedious & Disagreeable. A very considerable part of the County is thus situated and therefore would seem according to Equity & Justice to require extra compensation for the labours necessarily attendant upon obtaining the Census required.

History of Jasper County GA

Jasper County was created December 10, 1807 from Baldwin County; number 31 in the order of creation, it was originally named Randolph County. (The present-day Randolph County was created on December 20, 1828). The name was changed December 10, 1812.

Jasper County was named in honor of William Jasper, who was an officer in Colonel William Moultrie's Second South Carolina Infantry, 1775. Jasper distinguished himself during the attack on Fort Moultrie, June 28, 1776 and was killed while planting the South Carolina Flag at the battle of Savannah, October 9, 1779.

Jasper County claims at least two notable people. Benjamin Harvey Hill was both a U.S. congressman and U.S. senator. He also served in the Confederate Senate and was a staunch supporter of Jefferson Davis. Monticello, a city in the county, is the home of country music star Trisha Yearwood.

Parts of Lake Jackson in the Oconee National Forest are located in Jasper County.

Jesse Kirk moved to Pike County, GA in 1823 right after Pike County was formed. probably to be near his son /relatives since he would have been 61 yrs old at that time and died in Zebulon (Pike Co.) in 1834 and was 72 yrs old when he died.

Pike County, Georgia History

Pike County was formed in 1822 from the Western portion of Monroe County. Originally, the county seat was set up near Riley Crossroads, in the newly created town of Newnan. However, when Upson County was formed in 1825 from the lower portion of Pike County and part of Crawford County, the county seat of Newnan was too far from the center of the county. Soon the town of Zebulon was laid out and in November 1825 the legislature permanently set Zebulon as the county seat.

In 1851 the most Northern part of the county was given to Spalding County. The boundaries of Pike County remained unchanged from 1851 until 1920, when some of the eastern portion of Pike County became part of the newly formed Lamar County.

Pike County and the town of Zebulon were named after Zebulon Montgomery Pike, noted soldier and explorer. Zebulon was born January 5, 1779 in Lambertton, New Jersey to Major Zebulon Pike and Isabella Brown. As a soldier and explorer he traveled large portions of the American West, made an unsuccessful attempt to reach the summit of the peak that bears his name, and died during the attack on York (now Toronto), Canada on April 27, 1813 during the war with Great Britain.

Other towns in Pike County at this time are: Concord, Meansville, Lifsey Springs, Williamson, and Molena.

The Pike County courthouse in Zebulan has civil court and land records from 1823.

The earliest existing tax list is for the year 1825. U.S. Census reports are available for this county from 1830 to 1920.

There may have been two more daughters of Jesse Kirk. In the 1820 census of Jasper Co. GA there was listed: 3 males under 10, 2 males 16-18, 1 male 45-over; 1 female under 10, 1 female 10-16, 1 female 16-26, 1 female 26-45. Mary Daniel Kirk would of been around 13 at this time. That would leave a daughter born before her and one after her. Wiley and Hudson had already left home by this time. The other brothers all fit in with the time frame. Now the hard part is trying to figure out who these other two daughters are.

Elijah Kirk - farmer - merchant, Felton, b. Pike Co., GA 16 Mar 1857. His parents were very poor - the only schooling he received was a few weeks each year after the crop was "laid by". On reaching manhood he came to Haralson where he worked on farms until he accumulated enough money to buy a small farm. He worked diligently and intelligently on his farm, made good crops for his force, and saved money. He managed his small annual surplus with unusual discretion, until in 1890, he found himself possessed of enough capital to embark in a general merchandise store. He has been phenomenally successful in this enterprise, and has now the largest store in Felton, and is doing a large and profitable business. In addition he owns several nice desirable farms which he rents. He is popular in the community, highly esteemed by his fellow citizens, and considered one of the best financiers in his section. All he lacks to round off and complete his character and fill the measure of his happiness is a good wife.

Notes for JAMES HARVEY HILL:

Died July 1862 at service in Confederate States Army, Lookout MT. TN; Document filed on July 13, 1863, reporting death on September 7, 1862, but working the date as stated in the document seems speculative. Furthermore, the book "Saddle Bag and Spinning Wheel", states the location of the 56th Regiment at specific dates, and shows them in Kentucky from about August 19 through the month of September of 1862. Incorrect date of death reported in CSA Pension Claim. The book "Saddle Bag and Spinning Wheel" states that the location of the 56th Regiment was in Vicksburg, MS as late as May 3, 1863, and Stone Mountain, GA on September 24, 1863. It is possible that between those dates they were in the Chattanooga area, but there is mention in Dr. Peddy's letters of any measles epidemic or disease on these dates, as he mentioned in his letters a year earlier.

[Kirk]

Dick Hill, the son of William Hill and Mary Daniel Kirk, was born 5 July 1843, Houston, Heard Co. GA, and d. 12 Jan 1913. After returning from the Confederate War in 1865, he married Eliza Ann Hardy c1866. She was born to James Sylvester and Tava Anne Emily Hardy 9 May 1842 and d. 16 Apr 1924. Both are bur. Cedar wood Cemetery., Roanoke, AL. Two sons were born to this union, John T. b. 22 Nov 1867, never Md.; William H. (Bob) b. 27 Nov 1871 Md. Ada Elizabeth Carlisle 18 Jul 1900. They had one son who died as an infant. This line ended with this family.

Dick was associated with his brother-in-law, Jim Hardy, in Hill, Hardy and Company.

In 1879, the first brick house in Roanoke was built by W. A. Handley. Hill, Hardy and Company built a brick store adjoining the Handley home.

In 1909 Dick and Eliza lived in a big white house on Maple Drive, Roanoke, which many years later was used as a funeral home.

The Will Chewnings lived on Louina Street, next door to the Judge Heflin home. The Chewnings had daughters who were lovely young ladies. The story is told they "needed a house that would be a fitting setting for them". Dick Hill swapped houses with the Chewnings and moved his family into the Louina Street house. Bob Hill continued to live in this house until his death in 1957.

Dick and George had a young brother, Wilson L. (Bud) Hill who boarded with the W. A. Handleys and attended school. Bud Hill later married Corrie Shaffer, sister of Mrs. Guy Handley and Mrs. B. O. Driver. He was a City clerk in Roanoke. This family later moved to Dadeville.

Dick, George and Bud Hill were great uncles of the late Precious Hill (Mrs. Guy) Cooper, the late Bernice Hardy Hendon and Dallas Hardy Hendon, and the late Eula Orr (Mrs. Cass) Radney, long time residents of Roanoke.

Bud's sons were really something. They got into trouble like all boys. Mary Frances was in charge of the discipline. She was tiny but carried a big piece of stove wood and used it regularly. There are several stories known to be true of the boyhood pranks.

Several of the Kirk boys knew the local black church was having a meeting. Families traveled for several days by wagon to attend. On the last night of this meeting, when the children were asleep in the back of the wagons, they carefully (not to wake the children) moved the kids from wagon to wagon. The people got home with children that were, of course, not theirs. Story says it took them a full week to get the correct children.

The preacher said every Sunday, "God, show us a sign." Well, this was just to much for the Kirk boys. John and James hid in the loft of the church and when the preacher asked God for a sign they lowered a goat on a rope into the congregation.

The same poor preacher was giving his sermon one Sunday when little baby snakes started crawling out of his pockets. The entire congregation went crazy thinking God had sent another sign.

Your petitioner further shows that he has fully complied with the conditions of said bond, by paying to the aforesaid Administratrix the purchase-money of said lands.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays an order requiring the said Mrs. M. F. Kirk, Amanda Kirk, Bettie Alexander, Sallie Kirk, Delia Johnson, T. L. McMillan as guardian for the minor children of myself and Ada McMillen.

State of Georgia, Haralson County. To the Ordinary of said County: The petition of Mrs. M. F. Kirk respectfully showeth that J. L. Kirk a resident of said County until his death, which happened on the 4th day of November 1917, has left a considerable estate, real and personal, in said State, and that he died without a will; that on account of the time required by law to advertise for Permanent Letters of Administration, and the circumstances of the estate of said J. Haralson Court of Ordinary. At Chambers, November 21, 1917. The application of Mrs. M. F. Kirk for Temporary Letters of Administration on the estate of J. L. Kirk late of Haralson county, deceased, being before me for consideration, and being satisfied by proper proof that her application should be granted: It is therefore ordered that Temporary Letters of Administration on the estate of said J. L. Kirk deceased, do issue to said Mrs. M. F. Kirk upon she giving bond and security in the sum of Twenty five Hundred dollars, and taking the usual oath. Signed: Joe W. Kelley ordinary.

Kelley, Ordinary.

Family Stories:

Mary Frances Akin was a very small lady. She has been described as about 90 lbs. She had a fun personality but could handle herself. She said, "Never let the right hand know what the left hand is doing." Her family found that she meant, if you do something nice, don't let the other person know. She regularly took food to others after dark. She would allow a child or grandchild to accompany her. The men of the family would get the horse and wagon ready and she would take off with her shot gun. She would travel to a home, leave food and disappear into the dark woods before they could see her.

In her later years she was known to have a beautiful lacy handkerchief that she used to pat her lips. However, she actually had a flask hidden inside.

52. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN¹¹ KIRK (JOHN JACKSON¹⁰, JESSE⁹, STEPHEN⁸, JOSEPH⁷, JOHN⁶, CHRISTOPHER⁵ KIRKE II, CHRISTOPHER⁴, THOMAS³, EDWARD² KYRKE, ARNOLD¹) was born 1859, and died 02 Aug 1934 in Haralson Co. GA. He married MARY ELIZABETH SWANN 30 Nov 1881 in Haralson Co. GA. She was born 25 Oct 1859, and died 06 Apr 1948 in Haralson Co. GA.

Notes for BENJAMIN FRANKLIN KIRK:
Benjamin learned to read from the Bible. The Bible was used as a text book for all the children, because after the Civil War there were few school books in the south. The family Bible was worn out because of use and family records were lost. In 1877 Grandma Beckie inherited property after the death of John Jackson. Benjamin received a small inheritance from his mother. He bought a farm 1 mile north of bridge on Rockmart Rd over the Tallapoosa River. This is where he reared his family. Benjamin owned several small farms that he rented to share croppers. To the share croppers, he was a banker, landlord, advisor, and friend. Later he divided the land among his children and he bought a larger farm. The larger farm was rented to three families to share crop. He and his tenants were successful. He was also a banker to many of his friends in the community, some who became very wealthy. His obituary read: "He numbered his friends by his acquaintances."

It is said that Ben Kirk never made an important decision without sleeping on it. He knelt by the bed to pray every night then he would wake up with the answer.

54. JESSE BLANTON¹¹ KIRK (JOHN JACKSON¹⁰, JESSE⁹, STEPHEN⁸, JOSEPH⁷, JOHN⁶, CHRISTOPHER⁵ KIRKE II, CHRISTOPHER⁴, THOMAS³, EDWARD² KYRKE, ARNOLD¹) was born Oct 1869 in Haralson Co. GA, and died 1902. He married ELIZABETH ANN KEITH 25 Dec 1892 in Haralson Co. GA.

Notes for JESSE BLANTON KIRK:
[Kirk]

Jesse's death was assumed to be in 1902, because his son John William, said him, his sister Lillian and their mother stepped off the train in Greenville, TX in 1902 when he was eight years old, and the next time they heard his dad had died.

Also we assume he is buried next to his dad by family talk. Earl Kirk said he used to come to the cemetery with his mother and grandmother, and they would go by John Jackson Kirk's grave and walk to the north of it and mumble, "and Tad went to Texas." He assumed the depression they were standing at was Jesse. Jesse also had a son who died young and is buried somewhere in Georgia. We can only assume he may be buried close by his dad and granddad.

Jesse Wayne Kirk had a stone placed on the assumed grave in November 1991.

Ella died three days after her husband, John. Her son Charlie came to see her after John had died. She asked him what was wrong and he wouldn't tell her. She said, "John has died hasn't he?" When told he had she said, "I always said I didn't want to be left behind." When Charlie left and got home, the phone was ringing. It was the hospital calling, saying that Ella had died. She died within hours of being told about John.

57. LUCINDA¹¹ KIRK (*GIDEON*¹⁰, *JESSE*⁹, *STEPHEN*⁸, *JOSEPH*⁷, *JOHN*⁶, *CHRISTOPHER*⁵ KIRKE II, *CHRISTOPHER*⁴, *THOMAS*³, *EDWARD*² KYRKE, *ARNOLD*¹) was born 1854 in GA. She married ASA BOGGS.

Notes for LUCINDA KIRK:

The 1870 Federal Census of Randolph County, AL lists Asa Boggs living in the county with his wife, Lucinda Kirk Boggs. The census of 1880 shows Asa a resident of Randolph County with his occupation listed "Ware maker." Asa and Lucinda Boggs had the following children: William Hudson, James Andrew, Lelulia, Jack, Mary Bell, Sally, and Edward.

Asa's sons joined the family pottery enterprise and crafted the now famous salt-glazed pottery that is now highly sought after by collectors. At one time the Boggs family was operating three factories in the Rock Mills area. They also worked for other pottery makers as their skills were much in demand. The excellent quality of their pottery is attributed to craftsmanship and to an excellent pit of clay that was discovered on the Bacon Level Road. The manufacturers of local pottery would load their wagons with this clay that was locally called "jug mug", and would transport the clay to their factories to be fashioned by hand on a peddle operated potters wheel. The product would then be baked in a kiln at about 900 to 2,200 degrees until it was thoroughly baked. Salt would be thrown into the kiln where it would vaporize, creating a chemical reaction of the salt and silica in the clay. This produced pottery with a smooth, off-white, mottled texture. All sizes and types of items were manufactured from small ant-traps to large churns and crocks. It would take the pottery three to four days to cool.

James Andrew Boggs married Armir Olive Ruggles and they had the following children: James Judson, Virgil Elgar, Horatio Marion, Lucy Pearl and Annie May.

James Andrew Boggs moved his family to Prattville, AL in 1923 when a new vein of clay was found in that area. The family continued to produce pottery and today the tradition continues under the son of James Andrew, Horatio Marion Boggs. Mr. Boggs and his sons, Horatio Marion Boggs, Jr., and Wayne Boggs still produce pottery wares today, but they are of a different type from the old pottery. The Boggs pottery has been featured in many newspapers, and in a book "Traditional Southern Pottery", published by the Smithsonian Institute. The Boggs factory today is called Spruce Pine Pottery and they manufacture clay pottery and concrete products.

This article was submitted by Richard Ballinger, 123 Alabama St., Jacksonville, AR in the book " The Heritage of Randolph County, Alabama" in 1998.

Notes for JASPER NEWTON KIRK:

KIRK, JASPER NEWTON

Mr. Jasper Newton Kirk was called from this stage of life July 22, 1930 to meet his glorious reward as in promised the faithful. He was born in Hurd (sp) Co., Georgia Sept. 9, 1854, being 76 years, 10 month, and 13 days of age when the death angel visited him.. He was married to Nancy A. Honea on Dec. 3, 1874 and had 14 children born to them, with nine surviving. His wife, widowed sister (Mrs. Amanda Wadley), the nine children, his grandchildren, and hosts of other relatives and friends he leaves to mourn his loss. But their loss is heaven's gain. He confessed the Savior and united with the Missionary Baptist Church about 40 years ago and lived faithful until God called him to rest. All the children are living near their old home except Mrs. Mae Belle Lester, who is residing in Santa Rosa, Texas. Our departed brother's life is seen in the lives of his children as they all confessed the Lord in early life. As David said of old, "He can not come to us, let's resolve to go to Him". We owe it to ourselves, to our neighbors, and to God to ever be Christianly. (Written by a friend-from the 8/21/1920 issue of The Nevada New)

Notes for BENJAMIN ELISHA DAVIS:

After an eight year courtship Ben finally married Agnes. Benjamin was known to everyone as Ben L. Davis. No one is sure why he changed his middle name to Lige. His childhood days were spent on the farm. His father owned a large farm and a large herd of cattle. A lot of work was hired out, but each child had his share to do. This was before cotton gins were so plentiful, and cotton lent was separated from the seeds by hand. At night, each child would separate enough seeds from the lent to fill their shoes before they went to bed. His mother wove cloth, spun thread, and knitted socks for all. Their amusements were parties, quilting, corn shucking and log rolling. He was the only one of the children that attended high school. He left home and began selling medicine and other articles. He stayed in this business for quite awhile before returning home. After he and Agnes were married he was a farmer, blacksmith, and drove a school bus for many years. Agnes worked at the Goodyear Plant in Rockmart and was also a midwife.
