This was a harder assignment than I thought it would be...due to occasional errors in the way the abstract was cited. Tad Evans misread the format every now and then. Please review what I am sending.

I trust that you and your parents had a good flight back to Texas. If we can be of assistance in the future, let us know.

MILLEDGEVILLE STREET CORRECTION.

(Authorized by the General Assembly of the State of Georgia.)

Dame Fortune stands in merry mood,
Pouring her favors to the crowd;
Be ready, friend, before they fall—
Who knows but you may catch them all!

MONEY MONEY!

LOTS OF MONEY!

WHEN we consider that Fortune is daily diffusing wealth and happiness in all parts and every corner of this extensive country, through the medium of the Lottery System; that scarcely a week or a day wheels us by us without bringing the intelligence, that some one of our friends or fellow-citizens has drawn a prize; and that it only requires an investment of the trivial sum of ten dollars to give us a good chance for a Prize of $20,000. Surely it is unnecessary to urge upon this liberal and enlightened people, the policy of stepping in the way to wealth and the favor of the propitious Dame.

THE FOURTH DAY'S DRAWING WILL TAKE PLACE

On Saturday, the 21st of June next, at the court-house in the town of Milledgeville; at which time there will be drawing in the wheel the following will enforce a faithful execution of them.”—Denville Enquirer.

ANOTHER REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER DEPARTED.

DIED, on the 10th day of April, 1834, at his residence in the county of Monroe, ABRAHAM WOMACK, in the ninety-first year of his age. In the war of the revolution he was a brave, active, and useful soldier. This worthy man through a long life possessed in a high degree the respect and confidence of society, and was for many years before his death, an exemplary member of the Baptist Church.

TO THE PUBLIC.

I HAVE noticed the publication of WILLIAM L. FAM-BROUGH in the last Georgia Journal. Within ten days,
I will place him, together with his abettors, WILLIAM and JOHN B. OGLETREE, before this community in their true character. Forsyth, Monroe county, Ga. April 23, 1834.
