In checking the International Genealogy Index of names submission to Family History Library for Tenn. for Billingsley names found many early marriages in this index for Washington county, Tenn. including John Billingsley - Polly Hale marr 16 Mar 1819 Washington county. No other John's in right time frame for your John(Jack's) marriage in this index. Of course, there may be others in the various volumes we have at Library by Sistler for indexes to early Tenn. marriages in several volumes covering separately marriages in East - Middle and West Tenn which can be checked in my continuing search. Also in that IFI was a birth entry for a William P. Billingsley born 1798 in Washington county and his father's names was Jesse Billingsley. (certainly an area where your given names in Ark. are mentioned)

I also check statewide census index for Tenn. for 1830(976.8x2pa for John Billingsley
John Billingsley in Wilson county pg. 72; John Billingsley in Roane county pg. 16
John Billingsley in Bledsoe county (2) pg. 276

Index 1840 census Tenn. by Sistler with returns(976.8X2s) showed John Billingsley's in Roane 2 small sons; John Billingsleys in Bleunt, not enough small sons(2 Johns); John Billingsley in Wilson county no young sons at all.

Older Thomas Billingsley who was 67 in 1850 in Sevier county, in Sevier county deeds on film 1009441) Bk 3 pg. 278 is selling 28 June 1840 two slaves to Nathaniel Billingsley of Lafayette Co., Miss and transaction is recorded in Sevier county, Ark. deeds. Thomas at that time is referred to as of Hardin county, Tenn. Note where Hardin county is on enclosed Tenn. county map. Hardin borders states of Alabama) at Lauderdale county, and Miss. county of Tishomingo.

OTHER MARRIAGES

additional data used to compile this information

First United Methodist church records, Horatio, Sevier county, Ark, on film 1009448 item 3 church lists marriages, among them Louise Kirk to Foy James 16 March 1924. This could be possible marriage for child, Louise, on this sheet?

With Robert Bruce Kirk, the father dying in 1918 it is possible that he might be a world war one vet? Further checking in local history would be necessary to find out.

updated International Genealogy Index for state of Georgia, names submissions through 1992
 These names and dates and places all in index.

Checking my map book at home I note that Stewart county borders Alabama across from Barbour county, Ala.
 Stewart county borders Georgia counties of Marion, Chattahoochee, Webster, Randolph and Quitman.
 Hancock county is surrounded by Warren, Washington, Baldwin, Putnam, Greene and Taliaferro counties and is not far from the South Carolina border.

Your J. L. or I. L. BRAZEL in census in Ark. states that he was born in 1829, also his cem record.
 Above James Lemuel is only a year off of that date and born in Ga. where your man was born. One of your J. L.'s children in later censuses spell his surname Braswell and another Brazzel. Additional checking necessary to see if J. L. can be located in 1850 census if not in Ark, then in Ala. where his oldest daughter, Elizabeth was born.

 Rebecca and James Lemuel both reported as born same year, same place, same parents, so must be twins.
